

Suggested Packing List

- Passport and another form of identification which displays your date of birth
- Debit/Credit cards (Don't forget to let your bank know that you are travelling). Bring some cash in case there are any temporary issues with your card
- Copy of Travel Insurance, passport and any important documents
- Medication. Make sure to bring copies of your prescription just in case. (Some medications that you may be able to get over the counter at home, may require doctors prescription in Ireland.
- Mobile phone and charger
- Laptop and charger
- Headphones
- Adapters: One specifically for Ireland. Universal To Ireland/UK 3 Pin Plug Visitor Travel Adaptor
- Rainwear: This includes a raincoat or waterproof jacket/windbreaker, comfortable waterproof walking shoes and hat
- Hiking Boots (Required for hill walks)
- Layers: The weather changes rapidly in Ireland, with multiple seasons transpiring throughout one day. We recommend packing layers that range from a light short-sleeve, to a long-sleeve, to a sweater, to a jacket. You may need to wear all pieces at once, or perhaps just the long-sleeve. Please note that there are laundry facilities (washing machine and dryer) in your accommodation
- Comfy clothes (sweatpants): For when you are ready to change out of your day look, but not quite ready for pyjamas. Pack some comfy clothes to wear around your accommodation.
- One or two nicer outfits for going out
- Toiletries. (You can buy these in Ireland also)
- Backpack
- Waterbottle
- Sunscreen
- Glasses/Sunglasses
